

Transition Work - Forensics and Criminology

Due to be handed in – Presentations will take place in Ms Hanson's first lesson in September – so bring your presentation with you or email it to jhanson@wombournehighschool.co.uk
This work should take you approximately 6 hours to complete to a high standard.

Learning Objectives:

Produce a presentation that gives a detailed criminal profile for a convicted murder

Success Criteria:

This is an actual assignment and you will be giving your presentation in September:
The marking grid below outlines the success criteria.

Criteria covered by this task:

| To achieve the criteria you must show that you are able to: | Unit | Criterion reference |
|---|------|---------------------|
| In depth, details of crimes and forensic procedures used to catch the criminal involved. Over 10 minute's presentation. | 16 | D1 |
| Detailed presentation of crime, forensic evidence and history of the criminal – 6 – 9 minute presentation | 16 | M1 |
| Brief detail of the crime committed and the sentences – 5 minute presentation | 16 | P1 |

Explanation of task.

You are working with the police as a criminal profiler. You must compile a profile of the killer and look at forensic evidence used to catch the murderer.

You can choose any murderer but try to find lesser known criminals.

You must include:

1. Details of the crime – when, where, who was the victim and who was the criminal.
2. History of the criminal involved – childhood (could this have led to the crimes committed)
3. What crimes took place?
4. What evidence was there that tied the criminal to the crime? Forensic evidence is important here.
5. How were they caught?
6. What happened to them – sentence ...
7. Did this crime bring about any political changes?

Resources to support your work...

Use the internet, Netflix has lots of shows on about murders / murderers

This work is important because it leads to – its an assignment completed which is 15% of the course.

If you do this you will show me what your research skills and presentation skills are like.
